*Today and tomorrow are mixed in my mind.
I dream, but I don't know
my dreaming*

I'm lonesome for all that I'm leaving behind

But ahead a bright light is gleaming.

*As when seasons are changing
I think with regret of the sounds and the times that I've treasured.*

But I still have the feeling

the better is yet

... to come as the future is measured.

Little child I was you as you build in the sand,

Once I raised such a brief citadel.

*My new fortress I'll build in the strength of my hand,
in my heart and my mind
as well.*

Now I'm ready, thank God,

to walk into the light

to remember with love,
but no tears

To dream and to dare, to work with my might

WSBURY HIGH SCHOOL and to change without fear.*

GIRLS VARSITY

This year's co-captains - Anne Donovan and Diane Galipeau

The highlight of the girl's varsity basketball season was their super win over Algonquin High. It was only the second time in 11 years that Shrewsbury managed to win on Algonquin's home court. However, things didn't always go so well for the Colonials. With only two returning starters from the previous season, inexperience proved a harmful factor. Because of this reason, they lost a few vital games in the opening contests. Despite these pitfalls, Shrewsbury's superior ability and hustle kept the flame alive and gave them a respected record.

BASKETBALL

Behind the super coaching of Miss K. Tyndall, the girls' J.V. Team became leaders in the Midland League. With loads of hustle and skill, opponents fell victim to the young Colonial's spirit. If this team is any indication of the future, things look bright for varsity basketball at Shrewsbury High.

Senior Gymnasts (L To R) Jeannie Stevens, Laurie Shannon, Paula Stephens.

There's only one way to describe this year's Shrewsbury Girls Gymnastics Team: dynamic! Longstanding records don't seem to be valued highly by the girls as they break records right and left. Paula Stevens set a new school record on the balance beam with a 7.1 score. Irene Macey set an all-around record of 24.5 with competition on beam, bars, horse, and floor exercises. A new school record of 5.85 was set on the uneven parallel bars by Irene as well. With the talent of these girls, it's no wonder they have a 12-2 record, which includes a great 75-66 win over their arch rival, Burncoat High.

The Varsity

The 1977 Girl's Crew Team is looking forward to a very hopeful season with many experienced rowers returning. Paula Stevens, this year's captain will show much understanding while leading the team to victory. Although Girl's Crew is a relatively new sport, Shrewsbury provides teams with great depth and ability.

Mary Ellen strokes again.

SOFTBALL

This year, Spring will not only bring wet, sloshy weather, but victory for the Girl's Softball Team as well. Coached by a season veteran, Mr. Mike Kleminich, the team can not help but travel down the winner's road. With the powerful hitting and confidence of this year's captain, Diane Perotto, a championship is within grasp.

SPRING TRACK

Responsibility weighs heavy on co-captain Laurie Culbreth.

Co-captain Anne Angelico gets off to a good start.

With experience on their side, this year's Girl's Track Team looks like a very productive season. Able-bodied co-captain's Anne Angelico and Laurie Culbreth will lead the pack to victory. The team is also fortunate to have the 1976 MVP, Laurie Shannon, returning. The grinding track practices will be a mere memory when the girls at Shrewsbury run all over the rest of the league.

CHEAPER BY

"CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN" was presented by our talented Jr. Class on December 5, 6, and 7, 1975. The show's great success was the Class of 77's biggest money-raiser. Although mostly comic, many moments touched the hearts of both the cast and the audience. Directed and guided by Mr. Jack Feldheimer, we sincerely thank him for making our efforts a success.

I'll fracture your skulls!

KISMET

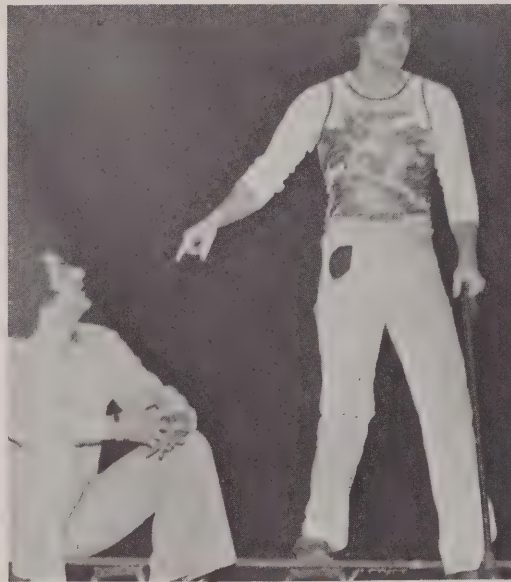

"KISMET," a musical Arabian Night, was performed on March 25, 26, and 27 in the S.H.S. auditorium. By far the most difficult musical show undertaken by our school to date, our talented cast worked long and laboriously to make it a great success. Mr. Jack Feldheimer directed the cast of over ninety performers. Without his musical genius we could not have succeeded.
